Personally appeared before me the undersigned authority, who after being duly sworn deposes and says under oath as follows:

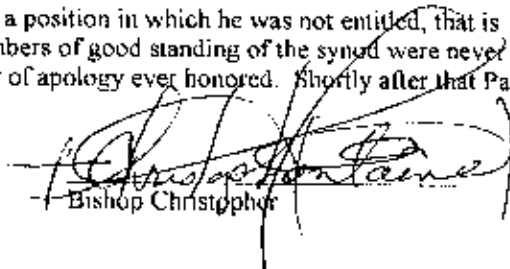

Bishop Christopher Fontaine stated in 1991 Cyril Beadle was serving as Chancellor was serving Ukrainian Orthodox Church in Exile under Metropolitan Nicolas. He had been appointed that position in 1990 replacing Bishop Christopher Fontaine as Chancellor due to a leave of absence.

Cyril had assisted Bishop Christopher in his capacity as Chancellor after Bishop Christopher had left on leave of absence. Bishop Cyril had kept up communication with Bishop Christopher throughout his leave of absence. In the year 1991, Bishop Cyril notified me that Metropolitan Nicholas had asked him to serve him as his Archbishop and indeed had elevated him to that position.

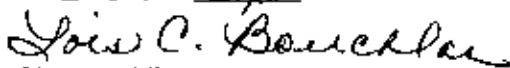

During this time several new people had entered into this jurisdiction such as, one Paul Seese. In January of 1992, the same Paul Seese, sent a letter to Bishop Cyril stating that he was no longer Archbishop, that indeed he was ex-communicated by Metropolitan Nicholas and that he had been returned to laity. He, Paul Seese, is now Archbishop. The letter did not specifically list the reasons for the ex-communication other than he had shown disrespect to the office of the Metropolitan.

He stated that if Bishop Cyril would show contriteness and apologize to the Metropolitan Nicholas, they might reconcile. I have seen the letter and I have it at home, all the excommunication as-well-as Cyril's apology.

All the above demonstrates that Paul Seese had assumed a position in which he was not entitled, that is Archbishop. Since, neither I nor Bishop Cash, both members of good standing of the synod were never informed about any of this action. Nor was Cyril's letter of apology ever honored. Shortly after that Paul Seese was ex-communicated by Metropolitan Nicholas.
