The Great Deception – satan's Plan

By + Archbishop Haralambos

"The Great Deception." It's spoken about in II Thessalonians when it says that because of not having the love of truth; they received, and were not saved because God sends an error. God will send a working of an error for them to believe the lie that all may be judged – those not believing the truth, those who have delighted in unrighteousness. So, let's get into the depth of II Thessalonians, Chapter 2, Verse 9 – about the Great Deception. When does it come?

It comes about in Christians not being fully prepared for the hereafter not having reached the epitome of being able to enter into the kingdom of heaven, but having to wait for the second death and come before the awesome judgment seat of Christ for judgment.

If you have received Christ as your Lord and Savior in your heart it seems only natural that you would follow and do His commandments. Therefore, fulfill the definition of a true Christian in Christ without error by fulfilling the commandment of Love. Love one another saith the Lord and Love Me. And if you love Him, as it is spoken about in the second Epistle of John, you will follow His commandments so that you can come into the fullness of your salvation.

Not Fullness of Truth

It is said by some Orthodox hierarchical leaders that our protest-ant brothers and sisters just haven't reached the fullness of the truth. There is no halfway mark when it comes to being saved. Either you're saved or you're not. Either you will reach eternal heaven and be with God or you won't. Now God does put a step in there and says that you have to come before the Great White Throne as it says in the Book of Revelation and blessed are those that make the first Resurrection. Because they have followed and reached the fullness of their salvation.

We don't condemn our protest-ant brothers and sisters. We ask them to return to the true Orthodox belief, never mind the doctrines, the bells, jingles, and incense, and the vestments and the Holy Altar; they should all come naturally if you are in truth. To wave the book that was only printed in 1500 as the Word of God leaves out the 1,500 years that brought that Book into fruition that the parties involved – the Christian nations, and people, and Body of Christ, that preserve the fullness of the truth so the book could be written. It is done through action; it is done through following Christ. Without following Christ it never could have been written. What places them into denial? What causes them to not understand the power of the Holy Spirit? By denying the transformation of the bread and the wine into the Body and Blood. That is an act of denial and by denying the Holy Spirit, even though they ask the Holy Spirit to indwell in their hearts, error enters in with it. How can error accompany truth? It's either true or not. Either we partake of the true Body and Blood of Christ or we don't. Either we accept the power of the Holy Spirit or we don't.

Don't Deny Power of Holy Spirit

By denying the power of the Holy Spirit, it's impossible to remove the error from our protest-ant brothers in Christ. And how sad that can be because there is a provision in scripture where we can move forward for our brothers and remove their error and it even benefits us. It's all because the spirit of antichrist has injected the error; has produced doubts. So now you have a civilization calling itself Christian in the name of the United States, producing trash and lies and entertainment that does nothing but hit at the deity of the Son of God. That is the product and the fruit that God says if you really want to know who are mine, look at their fruit.

These same people today – these protestants – refuse to remove this false doctrine, and join us Orthodox, even when we open our arms and beg them to please repent of their error. We see the power of the Holy Spirit. To say you have the Holy Spirit in your heart and then deny that power, is not only an antithesis, it is a confused statement. And there is no confusion when following the love of God. It's simple. If you love the truth above doctrine; if you love the truth above even your patriotism towards this country; if you love the truth and God more, He can come maybe and heal the nation. But he won't until the so-called leaders of this country, who say this is a Christian nation truly repent. Look at the rotten fruit this nation has produced. How can a Christian nation produce such rotten fruit? It would merely produce a glorified nation, a glorified god. We have not glorified God. We have condemned Him. We have removed Him. And we have used our denial of the Son of God to poison our children – to poison the masses.

This Country is Condemned

Therefore, this country is condemned – self-condemned. Even the Spirit of Elijah, his assignment, is to try desperately in the last days to bring the hearts together in unity and the contemporary protest-ant church and the foundation of the Orthodox Church from 33 A.D. Please join us and follow us. Please receive the consecration; please believe the power of the Holy Spirit as demonstrated in the Eucharist, as demonstrated in the Holy Chalice. How can you say the Holy Spirit works in your life and you deny the very Bread of Life? How can you say the Holy Spirit is within your spirit and soul when you deny the apostolic power that was given to the original apostles? That made them different and they came to the fullness of the truth immediately. They spoke in tongues, they spoke the language of heaven, instituted by sermon through the first apostle Peter, the one attacked so desperately by the antichrist spirit even today by saying the woman is to head the church.

We all know how easy it is for our beloved female species to be deceived. That fact of course is supported because it seems to ring a fine tune bell of satisfaction in wanting to be dominant in a society. No wonder our children and our families are upside down in their thinking. They got it wrong. The woman is not on top – and I mean no sexual connotation about that – she follows. She follows her husband. But first of all, she has to use wisdom in deciding who the husband is, not for money, not for greed, not for sexual prowess. Not for any other fulfillment except he is a believer in Jesus Christ and follows Him.

Therefore, it's easy to see, in the most important time in history, of mankind, we see the deifying of the Son of God being removed. We see the removal of the apostolic power by removing the apostolic succession. The apostles aren't there except to receive the Holy Spirit which they did at Pentecost.

God decided that pattern. They spoke in tongues because the power of the Holy Spirit came upon them. It's no wonder today we say we believe in the Son of God, we say we believe in the power of the Holy Spirit, we say that Jesus Christ was God in the Flesh, that we nullify that, by not accepting the action and power of that Spirit.

You see, the action of the Holy Spirit should overshadow the action and self-serving desires of the personality. Paul said it clearly – it is always at war, the spirit and the flesh. And when the flesh is winning you are not acting in the power of the Holy Spirit. So therefore, how can you be saved? You see there is the problem with the protest-ant doctrine. They say it is a one-time action and you have no responsibility and you are saved. And so, it is our duty, it is a God-given gift to stand bold in your faith, and say dear brothers you are in error. And you must show the change of heart by accepting the Blood and the Body brought about by the consecration of the Holy Altar and by the hand of God, and the anointing that is given to the holy priesthood. You, the royal priesthood, have a right to that same communion we have, but you reject it.

The greatest nation you came to, God given you a free reign, in a country that was only occupied by wild Indians. God gave you this country, and what did you do with it? What kind of fruit are you presenting to us today in your doctrines of Protestantism Christianity that you brought here from Europe? What are you presenting us with as fruit that comes from the truth? It is because you lack the love of the truth and lack of the willingness to change and come out of your error.

We Beg, Pray for You

We beg you; we pray for you, we ask you to come into the One, Holy, Catholic, Apostolic Church. We're not denying you that position it's yours and it's yours as much as it's ours. But you deny it by continuing to deny the truth, to deny that you have error, and by not allowing us to bless you and help you because we do still have the apostolic power. And I don't blame you all together in your ignorance, and your denial, because we Orthodox have gotten so caught up in our traditional ceremonies that we forget to profoundly respond to the scriptures. Our sermons are light, if any. Our sermons overseas, in the great nation of Greece, sometimes last three or four hours, but they're only ceremonial, not words that come from Holy Scripture. The correctness is in Holy Scripture. There need be no debate. If you love the truth – and I love the truth – we'll seek the truth, read the scriptures, and know precisely what it says, because the Holy Spirit will intervene supernaturally, and show the right from the wrong.

But you must pursue and love the truth to even want to change. And if you don't, not only are you putting yourself outside the Body of Christ, you are subjecting your children and the generations to come very shortly to believe the Great Lie that God allows and the antichrist will take those spirits and hearts and you will lose all of them to satan.

When the son of perdition is revealed, he will say he has the blood of Christ within him. He will say that he came down within the ages from the very womb of Mary Magdalene. He will say that there is no need to look for a great cross in the sky that precludes the coming of Christ.

They will believe because he will conduct miracles, he will use the name of Christ and he will put it upon himself. He will say that if I am an heir and a derivative of the very Christ, I am Christ and he will stand in the temple and declare himself as God and your children will believe it because you didn't desire the truth. And they will be abandoned. Because God will send that strong delusion. Your generation that is after you is condemned and the generation of slaughter. They will not be saved any more than you are my protest-ant brothers and sisters, because if you deny the power you can't even be prayed for. Seek Apostolic Union

So why am I begging you to reconsider your doctrines? Seek out the apostolic union. It's there for you and if it's denied you, God will deal with that. And He will even remove the Orthodox hierarchy that denies a brother coming into the truth. It's not to engage you in an administrative prison where we rule over you and your properties and your money and your churches, and your pastors, and your children, it is our duty as the anchor to Christianity, unchanged since 33 A.D. to give you what is given to us as a gift from God the truth. But you have to love it and seek it. You must want it; we can't chase you around with a switch and force you, because God won't even do that. He never forces His Will on mankind – He asks mankind to seek His will. To seek His Face. Not His Hands, not the giving of God, but the love and the affection for the Face of God. The sign of the times. The generation of slaughter, that's prepared and it's here. And how gleeful and happy are satan and his henchmen because man is just about annihilated, except for the remnant that God promises will survive. The gates of hell, as Christ saw it; will not prevail against the entire truth of the church. But it doesn't include this great error of this country that has the power over the global world, who has the power to introduce global economics, who has the power to produce global union, who has the power to eliminate nations, who has the power – the military and economic power – that comes from the enemy. The United States of America can do more harm than any other civilized empire that ever existed on earth. The Roman Empire would be like wussies compared to what we have in our armament, in our warfare. What are we protecting, a lie. A lie that has produced fruit that is beyond the speculation of any of our forefathers. Who could possible believe that this would happen? Because they truly believed they were in truth. And God showed them their fruit – this condemned generation.

If you are fortunate enough to have lived to be at least 50 years old, a half century, perhaps God will allow you to see the rest of the leaves of the chapter unfold. But it's not a pretty picture, it's God continuing and finally saying, start the judgments. They are already here. These aren't acts of nature. This is God removing His blessing and letting the acts of nature profoundly slaughter people by the thousands. And you haven't seen anything yet. You wait until the two witnesses start declaring each judgment as it increases. You wait and see the evacuation of any left truthful Christians who have followed Christ. They won't hear His voice when He says come up here, unless they are in truth. God will leave them here to go through the judgments so maybe they will still have a chance to confess their error and be ready for the Lord's evacuation and heaven itself.

God in the Flesh

That's the whole meaning of the Resurrection, that's the whole meaning of Christ dying on the cross. Now they're saying, so what? It was a man, it wasn't God. To believe that God came in the flesh, you must believe that the flesh of God, also resurrected. And that He will return in the flesh in the great second coming. But that's an awesome day of judgment. Because those remaining will believe that Christ is already here in the temple with the blood line of Christ. And he will call himself the Messiah; therefore if I have the bloodline, I am the Christ. Check my DNA. Check the Shroud of Turin. You will see that it is my blood. You will see that this perpetual plan of satan is so deceptive because it goes back even to items of faith in order to protect. The one thing it will lack, it will lack the mandylion of the Orthodox Church that was placed over the face of The Living Christ. And thereby we have an icon of the beloved Savior, not made by human hands.

Because the mandylion won't have a match, because the match is in heaven. Let me tell you how clever satan has been. He has deceived the entire

Christian church because even we Orthodox are willing to accept anything that comes down the pike as long as it bears a cross. Instead of coming against it, and having a contest like Elijah did in his day against the false prophets of the church, we ecumenically embrace them using love. We do that even though they exclude the love of Christ by not following His commandments.

The Shroud

When the Lord first showed me the material of the Holy Shroud, I was at a home where satan had deceived the head of the household. In the Lordly fashion of prayer we all indulged, little knowing that satan was casting an evil spirit of Non-discernment upon my Soul. God allowed it for me to learn an important lesson. The man, with an admitted problem of spiritual pride in intellectual matters of Christianity, was the vessel of the evil spirit. My suffering was insignificant, for after days of prayer, I cast off the spell. All by prayer, unwittingly, from the Holy Spirit within me. Though the man meant well, he himself was deceived two-fold. Later, satan repaid him for his services. As usual, he shed blood; but it was not satan's blood—it was Bill and Dorothy's blood. Especially hers. All because jealousy crept into the husband's heart. Now satan moved into Dorothy's heart with an attack that kept her bed-ridden for many days. One day the Lord spoke to me and I found myself headed for their house. I was armed with forewarned knowledge of bringing the incense burner, my personal Bible, and the exorcism intent in my heart. Bill was not home yet. We started with the full permission of this beautiful long-matured Christian lady. I burned the incense holder and proceeded to walk through the entire house. Every room. Then, returning, asked God, on my knees, to help and cure Dorothy of her Heart. The Lord did. She reported later in Miami at a meeting with another Renewal leader of the Greek Orthodox faith, an Archimandrite and Gold-lined Christian of the End Times and Charismatic Awakening, that she was well. The Priest proceeded to pray to remove the spirit of smoking and, in her words of delight, "she felt great". The husband showed signs of releasing his jealousy concerning her and his pride of superiority. Thank You, Jesus. BUT the real story of greater deception now begins.

The Shroud – A Fraud

Since the 1300s, satan had begun a perpetration of Fraud on all Christians: The Holy Shroud of Turin. Though as of this writing, Thank the Lord, the Holy Catholic Church has not declared the authenticity of the One piece of cloth. They have remained unofficial as yet. The entire theme has come to light most recently by Scientists. Many of them, emanating from satan years ago, carefully planned and kept in his arsenal for future attacks. Now the Prince of Power of the Air decided in the twentieth century to employ another air force. Even a scientist of the AIR of FORCE, in America, yet. Why us? We are the Freedom of all movement, good or bad, true or false. The intent of these people could be honorable except for one thing. These matters are out of their expertise in spiritual relics. The True Church has this responsibility. And praise GOD, the Catholic Church has not yet said yes, nor the Eastern Orthodox faith, nor Protest-ants, nor any Christians. Why? The Lord says very plainly in two instances in his record

why. Let me first reveal satan's cleverness.

First, establish the Premise. Then discredit the premise and all it was associated with, such as the Holy Shroud. It is satan's goal to disprove The Resurrection. Impossible, you say? Never. Watch the plan develop, for future Discerning Light. There was, of course, many years ago a mandylion depicting the Lord's face and features. From this, centuries ago, holy Inspired Painters painted Icons of the Lord. All in secrecy because of early persecution of the Church. Today, the whereabouts of the mandylion are unknown to me. These scientists have tried to conclude through a false process the connection of the mandylion with the present shroud at Turin. Not inconclusively, but with a bombardment of self rationalized formats of proof such a plant spores of the times and even the sophisticated carbon testing methods. But, friends in the Lord, they haven't quite been able to say positively. Why? The Lord's Hand Stopped It!

They were not allowed to remove any material. They have established with my heart's full agreement that this cloth was from those times and approximate vicinity. That's the devil's first plan of attack. Once satan has established that it was indeed the Very One wrapping the Lord after burial, and this to all the world. His second step is to announce that though this wrapped Jesus, He did not resurrect. All very scientifically today because of ultra-violet methods equipment that NASA loaned to this so-it-seemed-worthy project. But the Lord would not allow this to happen. After all, the Premise of Christianity is that Christ Is Alive, with His Eyes wide open, and overseeing all of us who believe in Him. Once the world had accepted this premise that the shroud was the Lord's, they would have proved conclusively that the man wrapped within was indeed dead and never received the power of God to come to life. Specifically, the Lord showed this man this: The eyes of the Lord and the icons painted - including the mandylion - are open! Open to all the world and its needs. Open after God's first raising of the first God-man since Adam. We, of course, will follow in a one-then-two fashion. Again for perfect understanding as always through misconception, the scientists reported that photography showed the negative-positive-negative reversal of the image on the shroud.

Now, fellow Christians, we all know His eyes are open. Finally, satan's plan is foiled because careful examination in only one known place to this man of dirt is Holy Scripture. The Bible. I always knew satan knows the Bible better than all of us. This proves that, also. But, Praise the Lord, by Him I was led to find that one single place. I made cross-reference to the present and original ancient Greek. It was well-said and repeated in all cases. John 20:7.

The True Shroud

The first men to see the Holy Shroud were John, the Lord's disciple, and Peter. John peeked in and Peter stepped boldly in. God, in knowing all future events, had John say in Greek the reference to two pieces wrapping the Lord. One of His head (kephalio – which is Greek for head). The other around His body. Now, the reference clearly states these pieces were in two different locations in the Lord's tomb. Why? One can see the omniscience of God Almighty. He knows all that satan may try and God has everything under total control. Praise Him. Praise the Lord.

The 21st century scientists are instruments of ignorance. Theirs is not where the fault lies. satan lies. The one-piece cloth was a one-piece covering on another man who found death. Our Lord found eternal life through God's promise of all History. The mandylion was to wipe his face as he marched to Calvary for the saving of us all. We thank you Jesus for being our Christ. We thank you Holy Spirit for enlightenment in these matters. We thank you, God, for your constant omnipresence.

This man of dirt hereby says: "There need be no reference or reminder to or remnant left behind as a relic of the dead, eyes-closed, Lord. For we look forward to the reborn life; eyes open, we spiritually see by the Living Lord."

We have this treasure in our faith and we accept and compromise. We will be held responsible – we Bishops, will be held responsible – there is no way we can escape judgment by beckoning our dear protest-ant brothers who needs to see. And if God wants to have a contest, let it begin, so that He can save our brothers and sisters in Christ who falsely believe they are saved without following the commandments of Christ and lack the love of the truth. They will be deceived. It will dissolve down to their children being more deceived, and if God waits too long, the entire Elect will be deceived.

One of satan's Plans

But He won't wait too long. If you think that this message that you just heard will go unchallenged, you're wrong. I am so glad to see the Da Vinci Code come out. Because it shows how duped the masses are. It shows how great the ignorance is, whether it be entertainment or not, how they delight in seeing the removal of the deity of God and making Him just a man; a man who is married and has children. But it's far more deceptive than removing the deity of Christ. It is presenting the false bloodline who will be the antichristos – the antichrist himself – who will declare himself as god and stand in the temple and do miracles, so many miracles, and those that maybe have reasonable doubts will no longer doubt that he is the Christ. The Lord warned us. He said don't look here, don't look there, because when I come and return in one day you will see as the earth revolves 24 hours, the Christ coming, from the heavens, not from the ground or the earth. Or for that matter the procreation of man. You see, in order for satan to establish him, the blood line; you have to eliminate the Holy Spirit, energizing the womb of Mary. But a man to deify Christ, make Him a man, and he had sexual relationship with a woman. Still a man, but he will be declared as God. For we believe, a Virgin the power of the Holy Spirit, coming into womb, God manifesting from heaven itself, by the power of the Holy Spirit. Our God-forsaken brothers and sisters in error in Christ, can't seem to understand that same power is able to return and nurture us in the form of the Blood and the Body even now. But they only want to believe that they have received the Holy Spirit and it indwells in them and they deny the power. satan is smarter than any living human being on earth. He knows the scriptures better than the evangelical protest-ants. He knows it by heart, he knows mankind, and he knows he can interject falsehood, in a very deceptive way. You have to ask yourself how did satan get in the church? Man, in his rituals and his bells and jingles, sometimes seems to forget the true value of a soul. When the Holy Spirit hits the soul, it touches it and there is a beautiful sound that goes forth and manifests as action, truthful action. That truth has been absent for more than 200 years here in the western hemisphere. Hundreds of years prior to that, if you want to include the Incas and the nations, Indian nations. That's another lie we like to perpetrate – that Christ came here and He witnessed to them. Christ only came to Israel and the lost sheep. God knew if He could establish His church, that it should reach the entire world for the message of hope and love and faith. But that love, faith, and hope message has been distorted. Pray for Brothers and Sisters The dilemma can be removed simply by praying for brothers and sisters to understand true love in Christ, true recognition, that is to follow the Lord and that's an ongoing process. It is God that saves you if you follow Him to salvation. He never, ever, in scripture says that we don't have to contribute anything. You have to contribute your heart, you have to contribute your soul, you have to contribute your willingness and your love to follow. If you don't, you won't – and you won't be saved. You'll recognize Him; you may say you have even done miracles in His name. But He will say something very simple, I don't know you. I don't know you. You said you knew me and loved me but you didn't follow me. You said you knew me and you loved me but you didn't love the truth and I am the truth. I told you so, I don't know how many times, I am the truth and the way and the life. Not the confession of 20 seconds, but the Way. Follow, yes, my sheep hear my voice. And the reason why they continue to hear my voice is that they need to continue to follow me. I wish it was a one shot deal. But it isn't. And America has proven that. That's why this country is condemned to total oblivion. Where not even cockroaches are going to live. Let me say something to you, I am a Korean Veteran who would be willing to give up my life, even today, for the truth to come out, and not some venture that pretends to be something that protects this country. How can we care about anything else but the true salvation of mankind, the salvation of those in this country? Our priorities are totally out of whack. We put all this emphasis on economics, on immigration, on politics. What difference does it make because they are all going like sheep to condemnation, self-condemnation due to denial? But who is leading this world, in something called Democracy, and leaving something out called the True Doctrine of Jesus Christ? They are leaving out God in heaven, the maker of heaven and earth, the creator of us all, who allowed the creation of this country by God. The allowance for it to last at least 200 years, but it will follow and support the antichristos. I believe he will be someone who says he is Christian. He will have the wealth and control of all the so-called global power and organizations. That's all you hear today, global, global, global. It's even coming from the mouths of our leaders. Who cares about the global more than satan because he owns it? He exercises in it. He has control as our beloved St. Paul said in powers and principalities and we just don't seem to understand that. It can't be done on a realistic manifested basis of flesh. It is a spiritual ownership of satan we are allowing to remain one. And by the way, he will remain there until he is removed by the Lord himself from His heavenly throne, condemning the false prophet, condemning the antichristos, and condemning satan himself for at least 1,000 years. And that's the only Empire that I look forward to.

satan, the Lord will rebuke you. I am nothing in the sight of God but just a child. A child that has a voice, that I pray that that voice is not totally lost in the wilderness. I hope that it can revive and bring some into the safety and arms and love of our Lord and Savior IcXc, Jesus Christ. Amen.
